

Elections at the 102nd Annual Council of the Diocese of Atlanta

Elections will be held on Friday, November 14, 2008. Convocations, Lay Delegates, and Clergy Members may make nominations. If information on nominees is to be on the Diocesan web site, follow the instructions on the nomination form. If nominations are to be made on the first day of Council, November 14, 2008, please prepare 550 copies of the nominee's qualifications for distribution to the Council. Bring them to the Council on November 14, 2008 for distribution to the Council.

► Member, Standing Committee; Diocesan Canon 3

One Lay and one Priest Member, each for a three year term; no successive full terms permitted.

The Standing Committee acts as a Council of Advice to the Bishop; consents to elections and ordinations of Bishops and to ordinations of Diocesan Priests and Deacons, and to other matters. It meets as often as needed, frequently monthly.

► Governor, Mikell Camp and Conference Center; Diocesan Canon 8

Two Governors, lay or clerical, for a three year term; no consecutive full terms.

The Board is responsible for the care and maintenance of the physical properties, the programs and activities of the Center, and the uses to which the facilities may be put. The Board meets no less than four times a year.

► Governor, Appleton Family Ministries; Diocesan Canon 9

Two Governors, lay or clerical, for a two year term; no more than two consecutive full terms.

The Board oversees the Appleton funds. It meets at least quarterly.

► Trustee, University of the South; Diocesan Canon 10

One lay Trustee, for a three year term; no more than four consecutive full terms.

Trustees attend the annual spring meeting at Sewanee and act on issues of substance that affect the governance of the University of the South.

► Member, Ecclesiastical Trial Court; Diocesan Canon 42

One lay Member for a three year term and one clerical Member for a four year term. Each must be at least 24 years old; no more than two consecutive full terms for either.

The Court tries a Priest or Deacon against whom the Diocesan Review Committee has made a Presentment for an Offense as set forth in General Convention Canon IV.1.
